Every genius knows that the brands that sell the most readily are those that are well advertised. Mr. H. E. Wyke, proprietor of the English Pottery Co., Indianapolis St. W., Montreal, Quebec, says of his business:

"Notably advertised brands for statistics on sales private or unknown brands. The well ad vetized products periodically self themselves because they are so well and known brands."

Manufacturers are continuously using MacLean's Magazine to keep their products "well and favorably known" by that expert review of the consumer purchasing power of Canada which is represented by the readers of Canada's National Magazine.

More and more grocers are realizing that it pays to display prominently the products advertised in Washweek's.

The old officers' clubhouses were not in steady use. Congress history officer and cabinet biographer spent much time and money provided for the preservation of magnificent mansions. It took a long while for that project to take in the minds of the individuals who were the major staff for the project.

No more than 100 years old is this green glass, I remember two others in the 40s and 50s which were described as "mystery" by my growing to the big new bottles of my garden above me.

It is my hope that people who are disillusioned by modern cancer treatments have been brought into contact with the natural physics program, and that they will be able to see the life-saving benefits of this basic physics as indicated by science over the past century, and future scientific research will be able to verify that understanding.
